- Ventilation measures: Some games will be played outside (all 10 and under games will be outside) but most will games will be played in a large gym will adequate air conditioners and air flow that will be on the whole time. We will also keep the doors on the east side of the gym open during the entire event.
- How Food and Beverage services will be provided: Food (lunches) will be made in our kitchen and boxed or bagged for people to purchase. Also, packaged snacks can be purchased as well. All workers will be masked and wearing gloves. These will be purchased outside the kitchen area. We will mark off the line so that people will be six feet apart.
- Masks will be required during the event.
- We post "Stop the Spread" at entrances.
- Social/Physical distancing methods, such as barriers and guides: Each team of 4 plus four adults will be allowed in the designated area while the games are being played. We will have four games of 3 on 3 going at one time. With our court monitors and 2 people running the clock, there will be 70 people in the gym at one time. 64 of those people will leave the gym after their game, with is no longer than 25 minutes. We schedule new games (with different) every half hour. As soon as the game is over, the players will be asked to leave the gym and go to their designated area (picnic table) to wait or leave campus until their next game. The only spectators allowed will be the two adults with each team. Spectator chairs will be six feet apart. We have fill stations open but not drinking fountains.
- We will have volunteers enforce mitigation measures.
- We will be sanitizing before and after each game ball, the door handles of the gym (even though the doors will be open), chairs andd the bathrooms will be wiped down and refreshed every hour. We will have hand sanitizers before you enter the gym and in the gym.
- Attached is the gym layout. The x's indicate the places where players or people will sit. There will be no one seating in the bleachers. We will have 3 outdoor courts as well with the same seating. All games are half quart basketball. Have also marked out approximately where our picnic tables outside will be located.
